

TOWN OF READING

A Proclamation of Inclusion

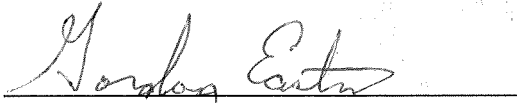

The Selectboard of Reading, Vermont, proclaims the following:

The Town of Reading stands with the State of Vermont in condemning discrimination in all of its forms and agrees with the Proclamation of Inclusion signed by Governor Philip B. Scott on May 7th, 2021.

With this Proclamation of Inclusion, the Town of Reading formally condemns discrimination in all of its forms and wants everyone to feel safe and welcome in our community.

We call upon all members of the Reading community to work together to ensure every individual can live freely, equitably, and express their opinions free from fear, intolerance, and prejudice.

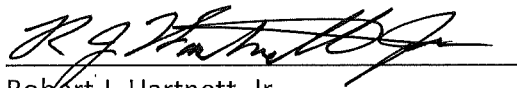

Given under our hand the 8th day of January 2024.
